

Dear Sirs:

Allowing personal cell phone use on the airplanes will cause nothing but chaos as most people do not know good manners when using their phones in public places. Passengers are already under stress with full flights, security, and overall conditions, that this would be a bad decision on your part. As a Flight Attendant, I am asking you to please consider your decision wisely. Thank you.